Dear Professor Bienen:

I want to express to you my appreciation of your attendance at the discussion/dinner on Nigeria on Thursday, 24 April 1980, and my deep regret that critical events occurring at the time prevented me from sharing the evening with you. I am told that the discussion was lively and informative. I'm sorry I missed it, as you know now, this was a busy night

I also understand that your meetings in [redacted] on Friday were very helpful to [redacted] and the analysts who attended with him. For that I am also grateful to you and your colleague.

Yours sincerely,
